CASES TRIED AT GREENSBURG

Two Cases From Our Section of the County Came Up Yesterday.

Among the cases heard before Judge W. Doty yesterday afternoon, was one more than average interest in that it hows that it is possible that a person ay feel absolutely certain in his own ind, yet at the same time be entirely istaken.

The case came from Pricedale and the arge was robbery. The prosecutor, M. evy, keeps a general store at Pricedale. n the night of the 25th of last December tween 10 and 11 o'clock, several men ored the store and at the point of a re- lver, forced Levy to give up $45.

William Findley and John Sisle , two ung men, were arrested, charged with crime. Mrs. Levy was the star wit- s for the commonwealth and positively ntified Sisley as the man who held the olver.

he defense, however, proved beyond shadow of a doubt that Sisley was the man, and under instructions from court, a verdict of not guilty was re ed.

rather serious case from Wireton eard before Judge Doty yesterday noon. Mike Muzar is a butcher in ton and has a cousin in his employ ame of Muzar. On September 6, a e occured on the streets, in which were engaged. Mike Muzar, it , made an attempt to separate the ntants and was stabbed in the back, nife blade penetrating a lung.

e cousin also received a serious cut e hand. The charge is felonious lt and battery. At this time we are le to give the verdict.

Entertained Friends.

ss Mazie Sibbit entertained quite a ber of her young friends at her home onner avenue last evening, about 12 ests being present. Popular games other amusements were indulged in. Sandwood rendered several beauti- elections on the violin, accompanied Mrs. John Pierce on the organ. Later ightful lunch was served to which d ample justice. At a late hour all d to their homes, wishing their gra- hostess many happy returns for a enjoyable evening's entertainment

Kicked by Horse.

ms Stevenson of Fayette City and operty holder here was kicked on hip last night by a horse at the for- place. The animal had gotten loo e he stable and Mr. Stevenson took a ern with him to investigate when the came frightened and began kicking Stevenson. Although not seriously will be laid up for a few days.

Town in Healthy Condition.

r. A. S. Arner Secretary of Board of lth has jus completed a most vigorous ection of the town and is pleased to rt that never before has he found our in a more healthy condition. This uld be very gratifying to every dent of Monessen. The No. of deaths his district for the month of January 21.

Yesterday afternoon the team belonging to J. H. Milhollan, the milk man, was coming down Schoonmaker avenue at a brisk trot, when striking the head of Sixth street, their feet suddenly deserted them, with the result that they were soon lying helpless in the street. Quite a crowd soon gathered which assisted in helping the animals up. The direct cause was the smooth shoes worn by the horses, which only goes to show that smooth streets and shoes make it very rough for the horses.

WEBSTER NOTES.

Mr. Grable, the shoe man of Monessen was a business visitor to town yesterday.

If the river stays frozen over as solidly as it is at present, we won't need the bridge.

Warren Haggerty was the victim of a peculiar accident last evening. While coasting, one of the runners on his sled broke, turning completely over. Probably the sled took this chance on account of the even, but it is a known fact on top the rest of the way down. The result was a badly strained ankle. The was then thought serious, but was able to resume work this morning. He considers himself fortunate got off so easily.

AT THE THEATRE.

A throughly up to date rural comedy which has no superior presented by artists who have a reputation and interspersed with more was given at the performance of "The Hoosier Girl" at the Grand opera house last night. The long line of artists is very familar in the realm of comedy. No play of its class has ever achieved the success attained by "The Hoosier Girl" and it is bright, refined and right up to the notch in every essential. Miss Watson and Mr. Gus Cohan, are supported by an admirable company of fun-makers.—Marion News.

Attempted to Wreck Street Car.

The lives of several people were in jeopardy at Beechwood park, above Charleroi Wednesday night, when a malicious attempt of a man to wreck a street car. Car No. 3202 bound for Monongahela was rounding the curve at the bridge when Motorman Bartley Burke saw a man piling ties on the track. He managed to stop the car just as it reached the obstruction and got off and chased the man. He caught him and brought him to the Charleroi lockup. The man proved to be Andy Zeney, of Vesta. He was given a hearing before Squire Rice this morning and held for court, under $300 bond. Henry Behanna was conductor on the car.

Pleasing Big Growds.

The Star theatre which is pleasing larger audiences each week, is certainly getting a strong hold on the good graces of the people of Monessen, but not without cause, for the management is exerting every effort to secure the best pictures possible, in which it is highly successful, as is proven by the increase in patronage from week to week. "The Magic Three," the present attraction, with illustrated songs, is pleasing both young and old and none should miss it

Forsyth-McLaughlin.

A very pretty wedding took place in Roscoe last night when Miss Anna Forsyth of that place became the bride of Robert McLaughlin of Monessen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Waltner of the German Lutheran Church The bride was attended by her sister, Landy, while Hugh, brother of the groom, acted as groomsman. A feature of the wedding was the music furnished by Greening's Ochestra.

After a short wedding trip the happy couple will be at home to their friends on Knox avenue. Quite a number of friends from Monessen witnessed the cermony and partook of the elaborate supper served immediately after.

We have much pleasure in announcing to our friends and patrons that we have had the good fortune of obtaining the co-operation of four prominent manufacturers, whose names and preparations are known to every housewife in this town. The remedy of each manufacturer has genuine merit to recommend it—that is why we represent them. We bespeak for the following your earnest consideration. A trial will prove that our judgment is good.

T. HILL MANSFIELD'S CAPILLARIS CURES SKIN and SCALP

The supreme curative power of T. Hill Mansfield's Capillaris has made for that preparation an envious reputation. All forms of skin disease have been triumphantly cured, after having been given up as hopeless by physicians, hospitals and professors of medical colleges.

Capillaris quickly cures Coughing, Sore Throat, Croup, Baby Humors and Insect Bites. This wonderful remedy cures not only the serious diseases of the skin and mucous membranes, but it is the one hair dressing that keeps the scalp clean, white and cool—in that perfect state of health which ensures an abundance of soft luxuriant hair.

No More Perspiration Odors

One time there was an excuse for tolerating the disagreeable odor arising from perspiration, but that time has fled. The introduction of makes it possible for one to attend social gatherings and dances without fear of being criticised and shunned on account of bodily odors. A simple dust of Spiro Powder will kill the strongest odor. It does not stop perspiration—simply destroys the odor.

A Case of "Like Cures Like"

[Original.]

"Wirt, you are a fool!"

"Call me what you like, so long as you do not slander her."

"I have heard of, but never before s., a man infatuated with"—

"Have a care."

"Will you listen to me?"

"No."

"Very well. Go and marry a woman who is a disgrace to her sex. More, she is a devil."

"Go you and choose your second, for tomorrow at dawn we meet to prove that you cannot blacken the character of one who is pure as an angel."

Winslow Manchester left the room in a frenzy at the terrible situation, and Wirt Dixey gave way to the violence he felt at the aspersions cast upon the woman who had infatuated him. Manchester had not been in his room an hour when he received a visit from one who bore a challenge from his friend. He consented to a meeting to take place the next morning.

As soon as Manchester was alone, instead of going to bed or in any way endeavoring to compose his nerves to meet what promised to be a tragedy, he called a cab and drove to a house in one of the prominent avenues.

"Tell your mistress," he said to the servant, "that Winslow Manchester desires to speak to her on a matter of life and death."

A few minutes later a woman came into the room and stood facing Manchester. She was simply and tastefully dressed, without jewelry. She had once possessed physical beauty to a rare degree, but it was beginning to fade, though she had not endeavored to hide the coming change by the use of cosmetics. From her appearance no one would have judged her to be what she was, an unscrupulous adventuress.

"I supposed," said Manchester, "that I last parted from you that day even not be necessary for me to see you again. I paid a high price for the protection of the fallen into your toils, but I so long as you kept your refrained from annoying me. have bewitched my friend, and tomorrow going to shoot me for you are."

"And how does this concern asked.

"If you have a germ of about you go to him, tell him right and prevent the meeting."

She turned and walked to the end of the room, with her face averted. He knew that she was deliberating and hoped that she would show mercy. Her mind was soon made up.

"You paid well for your own release," she said, "but you must pay more for the release of your friend."

"Name the sum."

"It is not a sum, but a person. There is one way only by which you can prevent a marriage between Wirt Dixey and myself. Marry me before any meeting with him takes place and he will have no reason to protect your aspersions."

"You? I marry you! You Hell and heaven are not more enemies."

"I have at my disposal to satisfying my enmity. I choose between them. If you or both of you may marry me I will play with the rest of your life as a cat a mouse."

"If I were sure to fall I would the former, and yet in that would carry out your purpose Dixey."

Manchester knew the woman understood the alternative. He spent the time that remained before the meeting deliberating and at the last moment chose the marriage. When the clock struck 5 he was the husband of this creature, whose object was not now money, but revenge. As soon as the ceremony was over they stepped into a carriage and drove to the place appointed for the duel. Dixey was pacing back and forth excitedly. He saw Manchester alight and hand out the woman he was to marry.

"Hear from her own lips," he said, "what you would not believe from mine."

"Wirt Dixey," said the woman, "I first made a fool of Winston Manchester and bled him for $10,000. But he was not so great a fool as you and would not marry me. At last, however, through you, I have forced him to be my husband."

She paused for a moment and was about to proceed when she was interrupted by Dixey's second.

"Gentlemen," he said to those present, "you have heard this woman aver that she forced Winslow Manchester to marry her."

"And suppose they have?" asked the woman angrily.

"I am a lawyer, and with that statement, considering your character, I will engage to secure an annulment of the marriage."

Meanwhile Dixey had been taking in the situation and, grasping Manchester's hand, said bitterly:

"Winslow, can you forgive me? I can never forgive myself. As for you"—turning to the woman.

"Spare yourself any disagreeable words. I am comfortably settled in life, and anything you would say to me would not interest me."

"There being no further explanations in order," said Manchester to his wife, "I will hand you to your carriage. As for me, I will spend my honeymoon with my friend."

Manchester after making application to the courts for the annulment of the marriage went abroad. His wife died a few weeks after the granting of the decree. AMBROSE SPENCER.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken, dissipate, while DeWitts Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by R. W. Beck.

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild pleasant and harmless. Rob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind. says, "No use talking. DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold R. by W. Beck.

It is a sin to suffer with backache and pains over the kidneys when a single dose of Pine-ules will give relief in one night. Suffering women should heed these warnings ere it is too late. Female troubles may result. Pine-ules will strengthen the kidney and bladder, cleanse the blood and relieve the aches and pains of neuralgia and rheumatism. Sold by C. A. Light.

All old time cough syrups were designed to treat throat, lung and bronchial affections without due regard for the stomach and bowels, hence most of them produce constipation. Bee's, the original Laxative Honey and Tar gently moves the bowels and cures all coughs, colds, croup etc. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tarr is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Look for the letter B in red on every package. Sold by C. A. Light.

Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best thing in the world for boils, burns, cracked hands tetteer, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

Anyone suffering from kidney pains, backache, bladder trouble or rheumatism who will ake a dose of Pine-ules upon retiring atnight, shall be relieved before morning. Sold by C. A. Light.
